

Apprenticeships

If you feel that University is not for you, then consider taking part in an apprenticeship after your studies at The Aylesbury Vale Academy. An apprenticeship allows you to work and continue your education up to degree level. You are able to earn a competitive salary whilst all your training is paid for. Apprenticeships give you the opportunity to gain experience and skills that employers want, helping you develop you for your chosen career. There are vacancies in a range of industries, from law to nursing, and engineering to design. The following links will help you to find out more.
