I am writing to you for some help.

My two brothers and I need to build a house. However there is a big bad wolf and we need our houses to be strong enough so he doesn't blow them down!

My youngest brother has decided to build his house out of straw. What do you think of his idea?

My other brother had the idea of building a house out of sticks. Do you think that is a good idea?

I can't decide what to build my house from. Can you think of anything to build a house from? Don't forget, it must be strong.

I will be back soon

Yours Sincerely

Dear

I am writing to tell you all about the strange day I have had.

I was out for a walk and realised I was a little bit lost. I came across a lovely little cottage in the middle of the forest. I was tired and hungry and decided to go and explore.

When I entered the cottage the sweet smell of porridge filled the air and made my tummy rumble. I decided to help myself. Porridge is my favourite breakfast cereal. What do you like to eat for breakfast?

After this I felt like taking a nap so I went upstairs and tested out the beds. The first bed was too hard. The second bed was too soft but the third bed was just right, but I still couldn't get to sleep because I didn't have my teddy with me. I just can't sleep without my teddy, he is called Rupert. Do you have a special toy you can't sleep without? Tell me all about it!

When the owners of the house came home they were very friendly and helped me get back home.

Can you suggest something I could do to say thank you to the owners for helping me?

Yours Sincerely

A few days ago I sold you my cow at the market. I am now writing to ask you to buy my cow, Daisy, back off you.

When my mother and I were very poor and I had no choice but to sell her, even though we loved her very much. Do you have a pet you love very much?

When you gave me some beans, which you told me were magic. My mother and I didn't believe me at first and threw them out of the window. Overnight they grew and grew into a gigantic beanstalk that had a giant living at the top! Did you know this would happen?

The giant tried to eat me but I escaped with some gold and am now very rich. Please let me know how much you want for my cow, I miss her very much.

Sincerely

Dear Sir,

I am writing to ask you if you have lost a glass slipper.

On Saturday night I, the prince of the magic kingdom, hosted a ball at my palace. Many people attended from across the land. Did you by any chance attend?

During the night I met a special someone. However, although we danced the night away she did not tell me her name. All I have left is a single glass slipper that she dropped as she ran away at midnight.

Could this slipper by any chance be yours? If not, do you happen to know who has the slipper it is?

I would be very grateful for any information you have.

Yours sincerely

Today we are going to look at how to write a letter and plan our own letter

How to write a letter.

Starting off....

- ▶ Remember to add your address and the date at the top!
- ▶ First you must write who it is for....
- ▶ Then you need to say why you are writing to them. I am writing to you to tell you about my amazing adventure!

- ▶ Next you must write more detail about your adventure, what you got up to and maybe all about how you saved the whale.
 - ▶ Remember to use connectives and interesting punctuation!

Finally

You must say who it is from.

Love from

Now you need to plan your own letter!

Which address will you use in your letter?

Date: Tuesday 30th June 2020!

How will you open your letter?

Paragraph 1: Introduction

Paragraph 2: Add more detail about your adventure

Paragraph 3: conclusion – finish your letter

How will you end your letter?
